Agenda

- Challenges of staff reductions and winding down operations
- Taking over projects from a firm that is no longer in business
- Amending contracts due to changes in ownership and circumstances

Who should participate?

CEO's, CFO's, principals and others responsible for risk management

Learn to:

- Recognize the professional liability protections that are necessary when your firm is reducing staff, being acquired or closing down
- Assess the exposure when taking over a project from a firm in financial jeopardy
- Respond to owner-changes including lender takeovers, bankruptcies and workouts
- Execute contracts or contractual modifications that enable the continuation of professional services when the original arrangements are no longer viable.

This program is a webinar presented by the Victor O. Schinnerer Webinar Series
